Schofield Barracks Society

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Oct. 27.—Last week Miss Dorothy Van Way entertained Miss Jessie Baldwin of Honolulu as her attractive week-end guest.

Mrs. Harry Blasland is staying in Honolulu as the guest of Mrs. H. H. Blodgett of Honolulu while Miss Margaret Blasland is in the Department Hospital.

Lieut. John Hoskins entertained with one of the delightful social events of the week which was in the nature of a wall appointed dinner party. The affair took place on last Friday evening and attending the Artillery hop was planned as further pleasure for the guests. Cerise actors in a large wicker basket formed the beautiful centerpiece while vases of the same lovely flowers were placed here and there about the quarters. Dainty place cards bore the names of Miss Dorothy Van Way, Miss Jessie Baldwin, Miss Genevieve Hocking, Miss Victoria Pick, Miss Jane Oliver, Miss Margaret Austin, Lieut. Arthur Davis, Lieut. Maury Mann, Lieut. Lawrence Fagg, Lieut. Owen Fowler, and the host.

On Sunday evening Lieut. Joseph Cleary was host at a jolly party to see Monte Carter in the 25th Infantry amusement hall. Lieut. Cleary's guests were Capt. and Mrs. Albert Hennessy and Lieut. and Mrs. Lloyd Clary.

Miss Genevieve Hocking spent Friday and Saturday in Schofield Barracks as the guest of Miss Jane Oliver.

Mrs. Lillie Noble White entertained with an attractive informal dinner party on last Friday evening. Vari-colored dainty cosmos clustered gracefully in a low basket adorned the center of the oval dining table. Mrs. White's guests were Miss Mellicot, Miss Marybelle White, Miss Marguerite White, Lieut. Amory Cotchett, Lieut. Forrest Pinkerton, and Lieut. Arthur White. Later in the evening the party were among the guests at the 9th Field Artillery hop.

The officers and ladies of the 9th Field Artillery were hosts and hostesses on last Friday evening at a very successful post hop. Dancing was enjoyed in the open air pavilion where Japanese lanterns were hung to effect a pretty setting. Informality was the keynote to success, and everyone had a good time. The white dance programs with "Mounted Service Mess" printed on them called for twelve straight dances and four extras which were well played by the 9th Artillery band. After taps a delicious luncheon was served to the guests in the cosy brigade club-rooms. Here a refreshing punch had been dispensed during the evening to the dancers, among whom were: Col. and Mrs. Tieman Horn, Maj. and Mrs. Raymond Pratt, Capt. and Mrs. Jacob Devers, Capt. and Mrs. John Hauser, Capt. and Mrs. John Wyeth, Capt. and Mrs. Harold Vandever, Capt. and Mrs. Albert Hennessy, Capt. and Mrs. Philip Kiehl, Capt. and Mrs. David Cain, Capt. and Mrs. Archibald Arnold, Capt. and Mrs. Henry Lewis, Lieut. and Mrs. Lloyd Clary, Lieut. and Mrs. William Saportas, Mrs. De Russy Hoyle, Mrs. Lillie Noble White, Miss Jane Oliver, Miss Larson of Honolulu, Miss Dorothy Van Way, Miss Genevieve Hocking of Honolulu, Miss Marguerite White, Miss Jessie Baldwin of Honolulu, Miss Mellicot, Miss Katherine Anderson, Miss Marybelle White, Miss Victoria Pick, Capt. Clyde Selleck, Capt. Vincent Erwin, Capt. Raymond McQuillin, Capt. John Eager, Capt. Karl Greenwald, Capt. Bertram Frankenger, Maj. Patterson, Chaplain Ignatius Fealy, Lieut. Lawrence Fagg, Lieut. Arthur White, Lieut. Owen Fowler, Lieut. John Hoskins, Lieut. Amory Cotchett, Lieut. Forrest Pinkerton, Lieut. Marcus Monsarrat, Lieut. Maury Mann, Lieut. Williston Warren, Lieut. Arthur Davis, Lieut. Finney, and Lieut. Ashby of Pearl Harbor.

Lieut. Brandon Finney was the guest of Lieut. John Hoskins and Miss Jane Oliver for Sunday evening tea. As the guests of Lieut. Finney, Miss Oliver and Lieut. Hoskins attended the Monte Carter performance later in the evening.

On Saturday evening Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Monsarrat entertained with an attractive dinner dance at the Courtland Hotel in Honolulu, having as their guests Miss Martha McChesney, Miss Mellicot, Miss Ruth McChesney, Lieut. Amory Cotchett, Lieut. Owen Fowler, and Lieut. Marcus Monsarrat. A profusion of pink asters were used as a floral decoration for the table.

Dr. and Mrs. Emmett Varvel were dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. William Forbes on Sunday evening. Beautiful yellow chrysanthemums formed an artistic centerpiece which was surrounded by soft shaded candles.

On Wednesday Mrs. Englebert Owenshine was hostess to the 1st Infantry Bridge Club at her attractive quarters in Castner. For several hours the guests tried their luck at cards, after which tea and a light luncheon was served to Mrs. Owenshine's guests, who were: Mrs. Byard Sneed, Mrs. Robert Houston Anderson, Mrs. Henry Lewis, Mrs. Thomas Lowe, Mrs. Corbitt Hoffman, Mrs. Philip Rossiter, and Mrs. Chas. Rice.

Miss Mellicot spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Honolulu as the guest of Mrs. R. A. Jordan.

Mrs. Lillie Noble White, Miss Marybelle White, Miss Marguerite White, and Lieut. Jack Bullene were the guests of Lieut. Forrest Pinkerton for the dinner dance at the Moana Hotel on Saturday evening. Gorgeous pink hibiscus offset by an abundance of green leaves made the dining table very attractive. After dinner the party were among the number who saw Monte Carter at the Bijou and completed the evening's pleasure by having refreshments on the Young Roof Garden.

On Saturday evening Capt. and Mrs. Albert Hennessy, Lieut. and Mrs. Lloyd Clary, Miss Larson, and Maj. Patterson composed a jolly party who took dinner at one of the famous Japanese houses in Honolulu. An exhibition dance by Geisha girls was a treat to the guests as was also the Oriental dinner, which was quite a venture into the depths of Japanese culinary. After dinner the party were guests in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Drinkwater in Honolulu.

Mrs. Henry Lewis, Mrs. Charles Walson and Mrs. Englebert Owenshine were the charming hostesses at a novel affair on Monday afternoon when they entertained with a most enjoyable tennis tea. The tennis courts of the 1st Infantry were used for the occasion and doubles were played, the ladies matching partners by the drawing of numbers. Among the players were Mrs. William McLaurin, Mrs. Archibald Arnold, Mrs. Cuthbert Stearns, Mrs. Henry Lewis, Mrs. Philip Thurbur, Mrs. John Hauser, Mrs. Charles Walson, Mrs. Englebert Owenshine, Miss Katherine Anderson, Miss Marybelle White, and Miss Tyler. Iced tea and sandwiches were served under a shady tent by the side of the court, where the players rested and chatted. Those invited for tea were Mrs. Corbitt Hoffman, Mrs. Markey, Mrs. Jacob Devers, Mrs. John Wyeth, Mrs. Harold Vandever, Mrs. Robert Houston Anderson, and Miss Marguerite White.

On Wednesday Capt. and Mrs. Albert Hennessy and Lieut. and Mrs. Lloyd Clary motored to Honolulu to spend the day.

Lieut. William Barot was host at a pleasant affair when he presided as dinner host at the Haleiwa Hotel on Saturday evening. A shower of goldenrod adorned the center of the dining table, which was placed out on the cool lanai. Lieut. Barot's guests were: Miss Dorothy Van Way, Miss Jessie Baldwin of Honolulu, and Lieut. Terry Bull.

Doctor and Mrs. Emmett Varvel entertained with dinner on Thursday evening for Doctor and Mrs. William Forbes. A delicate maiden-hair fern in all its beautiful simplicity was the only ornament used to decorate the table.

Miss Nellie Cotchett attended the informal luncheon on Wednesday given by Mrs. A. W. T. Bottomley in her beautiful home in Honolulu.

Capt. and Mrs. George Stallman and two small children accompanied by Doctor William Boyd spent a delightful day at Hauula on Wednesday.

While there they were guests at the Hauula Hotel. Swimming and fishing were enjoyed.

Capt. and Mrs. Albert Hennessy were host and hostess at an informal dinner party on Tuesday evening, having as their guests, Lieut. Wheeler Wilson and Lieut. Joseph Cleary. Cut flowers and ferns in abundance were used to decorate the well-appointed table.

One of the most beautiful social affairs of the week took place on Tuesday evening when Lieut. Forrest Pinkerton entertained at the weekly dinner danzant, given by the Moana Hotel, with a handsome dinner party for fourteen guests. The appointments were unusually elaborate, the silver service of the table being offset by a tall cut-glass vase holding four or five dozen gorgeous long-stemmed American Beauty roses. The same lovely flowers were scattered over the table amid delicate maiden-hair and feathery asparagus fern. The place cards were hand painted scenes of Waikiki tied with red, white, and blue ribbon and bore the gilt insignia of the Medical Corps. Lieut. Pinkerton's guests were Miss Mellicot, Miss Marguerite White, Miss Caroline Raymond, Miss Marybelle White, Miss Buckland, Mrs. Helen MacAdam, Miss Walker, Maj. Stephen Smith, Lieut. Arthur White, Lieut. Terry Bull, Lieut. Richard Clark, Lieut. Oscar Skelton, and Lieut. Amory Cotchett. American Beauty corsage bouquets were favors for the ladies, while white orchids were lapel favors for the officers. Dancing until late was enjoyed by the guests before motoring back to Schofield Barracks.

Lieut. Owen Fowler and Lieut. Marcus Monsarrat entertained at the Moana Hotel danzant on Tuesday evening, having as their guests Miss Isabel Baker of Fort Shafter and Miss Martha McChesney of Honolulu.

On Tuesday evening Capt. Karl Greenwald, Capt. Bertram Frankenger and Lieut. Marvin Heyser were guests of Lieut. Ivan Bradley, Lieut. Patrick Lynch, and Lieut. Jack Bullene at an informal stag party which was in the nature of a "Koffee Klatch."

Miss Katherine Carnahan arrived in the post last Saturday from Honolulu to spend the holiday week end with her parents, Col. and Mrs. Earl Carnahan.

Miss Victoria Pick was the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Pick, for the week-end, being accompanied to Schofield Barracks by her classmate, Miss Margaret Austin, who is quite charming and pretty, making a host of new friends for herself among the post people.

Mrs. Charles Van Way has received word from Col. Van Way stating that he has been ordered to France. Mrs. Van Way and Miss Dorothy Van Way expect to leave on the transport Thomas which sails on the 1st of November for the mainland, and will make their home in Los Angeles while Col. Van Way is in France.

Mrs. John Burnett is spending a week or ten days at Haleiwa as a guest in the Haleiwa Hotel.

Mrs. Charles Van Way and Miss Dorothy Van Way motored into Honolulu on Thursday as the guests of Lieut. Richard Clark. The party were entertained at dinner at the Young Hotel with Lieut. Lewis Dorn as host.

On Thursday Mrs. Thomas Lowe entertained with an enjoyable bridge tea in honor of Mrs. Charles Meals who leaves next week for the United States. Those invited in to play bridge were Mrs. Englebert Owenshine, Mrs. Henry Lewis, Mrs. Robert Houston Anderson, Mrs. Byard Sneed, Mrs. Charles Meal, Mrs. Charles Walson, Mrs. Philip Rossiter, Mrs. Chas. Rice, Mrs. John Richardson, Mrs. Corbitt Hoffman, Mrs. William Forbes, and Miss Katherine Anderson. At 5 o'clock Mrs. Paul Manchester, Mrs. Philip Kiehl, Mrs. Hugh Keen and Mrs. Charles Leonard dropped in for tea and refreshments.

Col. and Mrs. William Bannister motored to Haleiwa for a swim on Thursday evening, having for guests Capt. and Mrs. Albert Hennessy.

Mrs. Charles Meals and small son Robert expect to leave Schofield Barracks on Monday to be the guests of friends in Honolulu until the Maui sails on Wednesday.
